LEIGH MILES

Choreographer & Movement Director

Overview

During her choreographic and movement directing career Leigh has worked for all the major television networks: BBC – ITV - C4 and many of the digital channels. She has also worked within the film, music, stage, and advertising industries. She is extremely creative and adept at interpreting the needs of the script and the director.

Leigh has staged and directed large and complex production sequences but is equally at home with smaller more intimate pieces. She has excellent people skills and is exceptionally well organized. Leigh is used to working with both large and small groups of experienced dancers at the top of their profession.

She works with individual artists and actors on movement and dance, building on their strengths; creatively, safely and effectively. She also brings out the best in artists who have limited dance ability.
